A terminal window with a dark header bar. The header bar contains the text 'fortune — Running' on the left and 'age: 43m' on the right. The main area of the terminal is white and displays the output of the 'fortune' command. The output consists of three lines: 'Your fortune is:', 'you will have a nice day', and 'Secret: my-fortune-secret'. The text is in a monospaced font, with the first line in a lighter blue color and the subsequent two lines in a darker teal color.
